Songwriting Birthday Parties At Replay:

Get the creative juices flowing on your special day with an entirely new songwriting birthday party experience. Replay Music Studios helps you write, perform, and record an original song with your Birthday Band in 2 to 3 hours! Don't worry if you can't play an instrument, Replay has the tools, techniques and teachers to help you and your friends begin to make music soon after the party starts. Learn chords, melodies and beats, and discover how to put it all together. Then, after taking a break for pizza and cupcakes in our comfortable reception area, everyone gets a chance to sing their favorite songs with the professional Replay Music Studios band. At the end of the day, you take home video recordings of your song and performances to show family and friends.

Parties are generally available on Saturday afternoons. If you have another time in mind please call for scheduling options.
